GENERAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNMENT.

It is our constant endeavor to make the Union, in all that the word implies, a home for young men; to offer every attraction in the shape of books, papers, games, pleasant companions, evening classes, religious services, lectures, entertainments, and other means of instruction and recreation.

HOME FOR YOUNG MEN.

Effort is made to meet young men coming to the city as strangers, to extend to them a cordial welcome, and to interest them in the activities and advantages of Union membership. Boarding and lodging house lists are provided. An employment and vocational department assists those applying to find work, and aids those just starting in business to make a wise choice of occupation.

Direction is given those desiring to connect themselves with churches. The Gymnasium affords opportunity for physical development under competent instruction. Committees visit the sick, and in many ways befriend and cheer those in need and trouble.

The Union has always been prompt to offer such assistance as it might give in times of calamity and disaster, as well as to co-operate in such general social service as comes within its scope. The well-known "Country Week," "Rides for Invalids," and the "Christmas and New Year's Festival" for needy children are among the now regularly established departments.

The year just closed evidences a distinct gain in the increased appreciation by the members of the value to them of membership in the Union and of its numberless opportunities. Were we to OPPORTUNITY. search for a single word to describe the institution perhaps none better could be found than OPPORTUNITY,—opportunity for young men to join together in efforts for self-culture, self-improvement, or of service to others, insuring by this co-operation more perfect accomplishment than would be possible without the means placed at their disposal by the good friends, whose foresight and generosity have made real the Boston Young Men's Christian Union.

The gifts and bequests which have provided the Union Building and the Permanent Fund, whose income, supplemented by generous annual contributions, cares for the main operating expense, make possible, at small fees, well within the means of any young man, the accomplishment of endless forms of education, culture, social intercourse, and recreation.

Advice and assistance are always available from officers and from the regular staff of employees; and the small amount of personal service on the part of members necessary to the accomplishment of any effort undertaken, it is firmly believed, returns the effort tenfold in its value to the young man in developing his executive ability, in teaching him confidence and self-dependence, and in the satisfaction that comes from having done something worth while.

“SOMETHING WORTH WHILE.”

A study of the Committee reports giving the detailed accounts of the year's work will show specific instances of this active participation by the members in many ways, and the Board would, above all else, impress alike upon members and upon the friends of the Union the consideration of a more complete use by members and prospective members of the almost limitless opportunities which the institution offers.

POSSIBILITIES. A full realization of these possibilities will make the Union an even greater factor than it has yet been in the creation of ideals of citizenship and in its service to young men and to the city.

In an address at the dedication of this building Hon. H. P. Kidder, then Chairman of the Board of Trustees, said of the Union's work, "As has been the case in the past, so in the future; and under this roof we shall expect there will originate whatever may be of service to the young men of this vicinity to elevate and purify, and so to uplift and aid the community in which we live." Encouraged by these words of our good friend and stimulated by the hopeful suggestions of future possibilities, let us make the next our greatest year's achievement.

LIBRARY FROM RECEPTION-ROOM.

STATEMENT BY THE TRUSTEES OF THE PERMANENT FUND.

Provision was wisely made by the founders of the Union for a Permanent Fund to be placed in the hands of a Board of Trustees. The title to the Union building and all other real estate is held by these Trustees, and to them as received are turned over all bequests and all special funds. Contribution to this fund, of gifts or legacies, insures a continuation of the donor's interest and aids in establishing the permanency of the Union's usefulness. The value to the Institution of this assurance of certain and continuing financial support is fully appreciated by all those charged with its administration, and the Trustees are prompted from year to year to call particular attention to this opportunity to make a permanent contribution to the work for uplifting and developing young men, which this Institution has successfully carried on for so many years.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to the "Trustees of the Permanent Fund of the Boston Young Men's Christian Union" the sum of

REPORTS OF THE COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNMENT.

FINANCE.

To this Committee falls the duty of providing the material aid, that necessary supplement to the splendid service of our good friends and of our members.

Happily the Committee is able, from year to year, to express cordial appreciation of a most generous support in this direction; yet the demands on the Treasurer from time to time by our various departments keep ever before the Committee the opportunities for improved and extended service, which increased financial contributions would make possible.

Realizing the continually increasing pressure upon our contributors by the many agencies for philanthropy and social service, we still feel that the character of our work and its opportunities for fruitful service to the youth of the city justify a strong appeal for the means wherewith to carry on and extend our operations.

MEANS TO EXTEND.

While, of course, the Union must depend greatly upon the larger contributions of business men and corporations, it is particularly hoped that the younger men will do their share in supporting an enterprise especially planned to promote their own welfare and enjoyment.

“LENDING A HAND.”

Let the clerk, the book-keeper, the salesman, give, according to his means, for the general good, paying for his own membership and that of a comrade or two, and, above all, putting something of himself into the gift by taking a live interest in our affairs and "lending a hand" to push them along.

In this connection the Committee would particularly call attention to the recently established Sustaining Membership, the annual fee for which is $10, and which was established with the view of enabling such of our members as feel that they can afford to do so to contribute more nearly in proportion to the cost to the Union of the privileges enjoyed. This Sustaining Membership includes the privileges of the Gymnasium as well as of general membership.

SUSTAINING MEMBERSHIP.

Donations should be sent to Frank L. Locke, President, Boston Young Men's Christian Union, 48 Boylston Street, for which prompt acknowledgment will be made.

The financial statement by the Treasurer, Edward A. Church, is presented herewith.

A CLASS-ROOM.

LECTURES, CLASSES, AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

Active and progressive work in providing and selecting lectures with suitable subjects that will appeal to the varied interests of our large membership is one of the duties of this Committee.

Illustrated lectures on travel, alternating with the regular entertainments of the Wednesday Evening LECTURES. Course, have been much enjoyed by those whose taste runs to travel, while the course of Illustrated "Practical Talks" on Saturday evenings provided instruction and information along scientific and commercial lines.

The enlarged list of evening classes offered opportunities to all who desired to add to their general education. There is an ever-increasing number of young people who feel that they would like to spend a portion of their winter evenings in some profitable way,—in something besides amusement. They are attracted by the announcements of evening schools. Many take up studies in the various branches here at the Union, and find, at the end of the season,—like keeping up a savings bank account,—they have accumulated something, in this instance not money, but a fund of information which may bring increased finances and will surely bring increased satisfaction and pleasure in life.

The courses which have attracted most attention have been those of practical use in fitting for a higher position in business life and which might be called Salary increasing courses, such as arithmetic, penmanship, book-keeping, shorthand, business English, lettering and sign writing.

First-class teachers are provided, and the whole programme of the Union's educational work is designed to supplement the education one has already acquired, be it much or little, and the benefits derived depend largely upon the individual and the earnestness and persistency which the pupil puts into the studies undertaken.

The detailed report of the Superintendent of Classes follows.

The policy of the Union's Evening Classes, as in the past, has been that of organized co-operative effort, the Union providing the class-rooms, heat, light,

CO-OPERATIVE etc., while the registration fees are EFFORT. expected to defray the instructors' salaries.

To more nearly attain this end it was necessary to increase the fees to the basis of 10 cents a lesson. The number of lessons in each course ranged from ten to forty and the number of lessons per week from one to three.

The Superintendent of Classes has exercised fuller powers than heretofore in directing and advising the student in the selection of his subject or course, thereby increasing the benefit derived by the student and elevating the standard of work accomplished.

The only radical change in conducting the classes was made in the Civil Service Course. Instead of CIVIL one large class preparing for all branches

SERVICE. of the service at the same time, three separate classes were organized in order that those who were studying to qualify for the same branch, or similar branches, could have more thorough instruction in the subjects required for the particular examination they desired to take. This departure proved very popular and successful.

Individual instruction continued to be a prominent feature in many classes, allowing each student to progress independently of his fellow-students, while the personal element has entered more fully into the relation of teacher and student.

The large registration in Elementary French warranted the formation of two separate classes, while the Intermediate Class of former years was merged with the Advanced Class.

The Government and Citizenship Class of last season was succeeded by the Debating and Parliamentary Law Class, the prime object being to give the Debating Club self-governing powers with technical training under the guidance of a professional leader. During the season the Club has participated in several debates with other societies, and at the end of the season held a banquet at the City Club. A permanent organization was formed with officers as follows: President, John J. Magee; Secretary and Treasurer, Charles C. Conley.

The Elocution Course was augmented by a separate class in Acting and Pantomimic expression. The members of the Elocution Class have arranged for a post season course with the instructor.

The course in Lettering and Show-card writing was lengthened to twenty weeks, two lessons a week.

The Salesmanship and Business Class supplemented the prescribed course by a series of lectures by William J. Sholar.

DRAWING CLASSES. The Freehand Drawing Classes devoted more time this season to drawing from life, while the commercial application of drawing received special emphasis. A class for outdoor sketching has been formed.

On the afternoon and evening of April 8 will be held a public exhibition of the work done in the Architectural, Freehand, and Mechanical Drawing and Lettering Classes. The Business Law Class will close its season with a public lecture, to be held on May 3.

HARRISON M. DUFFILL,
Superintendent of Classes.

In these days when nickel and dime moving picture shows abound in almost every neighborhood of our crowded city, the work of providing clean, wholesome amusement that will attract our young men and their friends is a problem of importance. Clubs inside the Union, composed of Union members who have some interest in common, are encouraged and aided by this Committee. One of the most successful is the Camera Club. Starting with a few members interested in taking pictures with a camera, it has increased in the few years of its existence to almost fifty members, and occupies a special suite of rooms, with all the facilities necessary for developing, printing, and mounting photographs. members of the Club are held from time to time, and loan exhibitions of prize-winning photographs and foreign views by outside parties have been given in the club-room.

The Club members enjoy themselves socially as well as practically, holding socials in the club-room; and one night during the season was devoted to Ladies' Night held in Norcross Hall, when friends of the members were invited to participate:

The officers of the Club are as follows:—

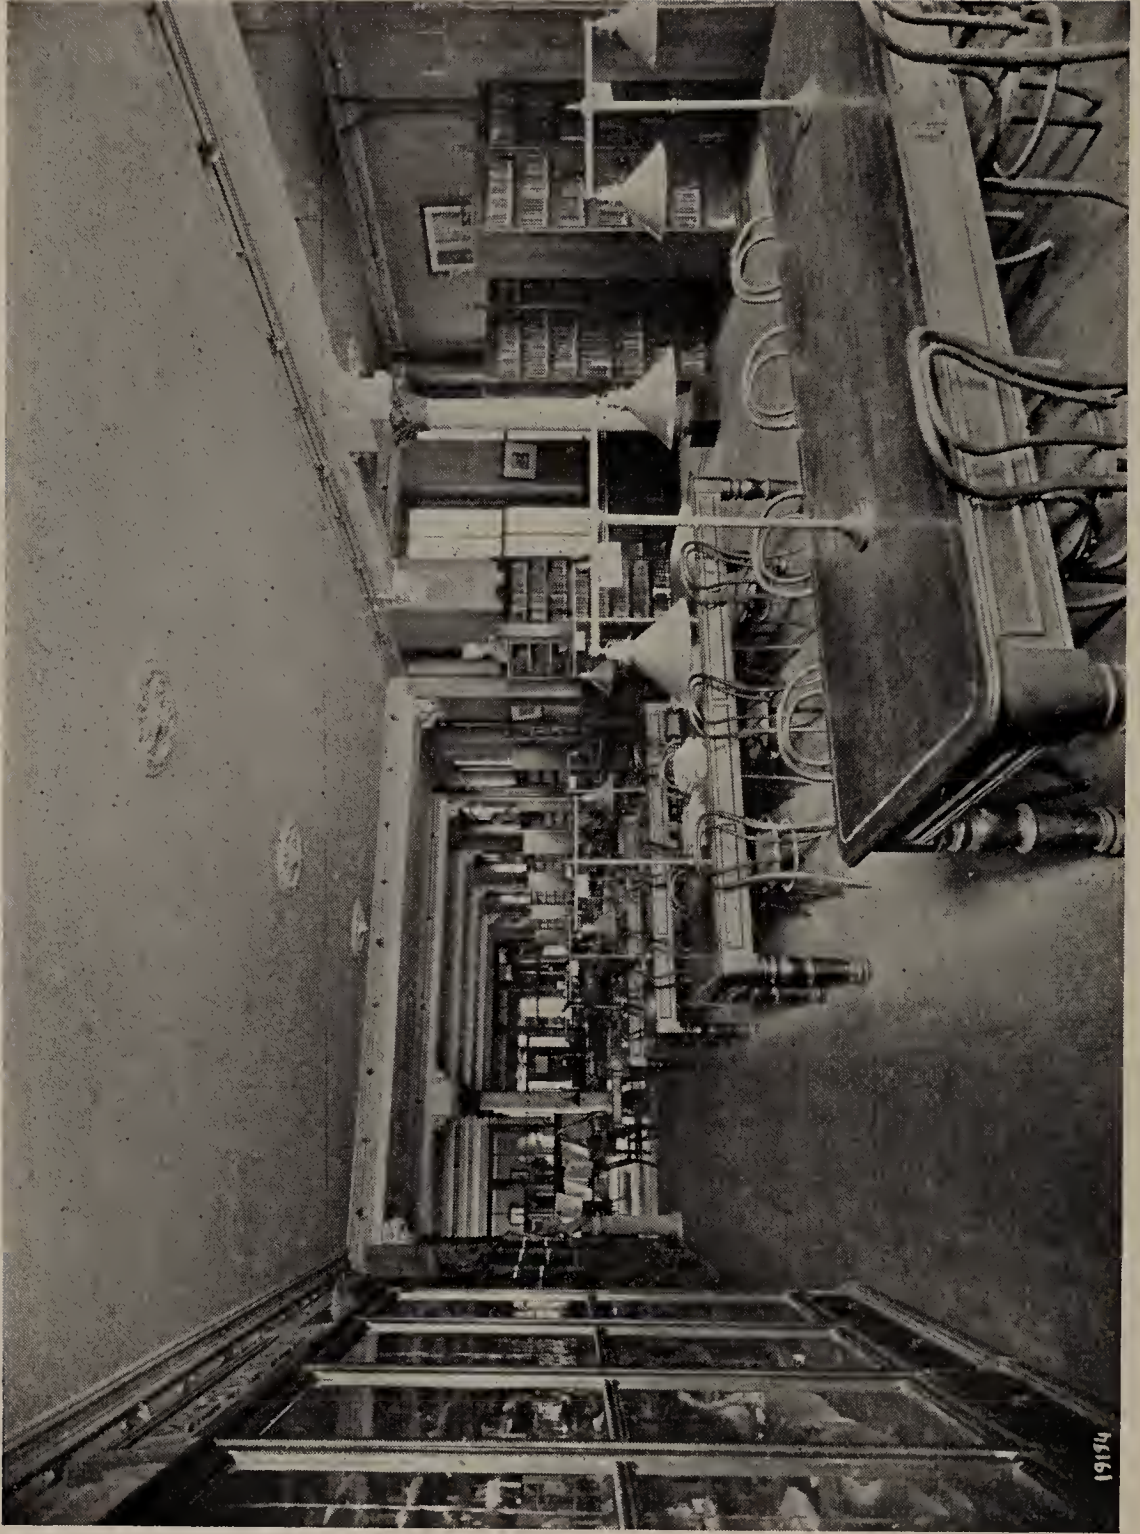

F. W. HILL, President.	H. A. STANLEY, Vice-President.
P. T. CAIN, Treasurer.	H. E. BUMP, Recording Secretary.
H. CHANNEN, Corresponding Secretary.

The Civil Service Club is another, organized last year by members of the Civil Service classes. The Club meets regularly and its officers are:—

THOMAS F. DUFFY, President.
EDWARD V. FREEMAN, Vice-President.
Miss ALICE E. E. TAYLOR, Secretary and Treasurer.

The object of this club is self-improvement and sociability.

LIBRARY.

1915/4

LIBRARY.

As an educational force in the lives of young men, the Library with its varied collection of the thought and the wisdom of the past and the present, is one of the prominent branches of the work of the Union.

The following statistics reported by the Librarian, Richard Ray, Jr., give a general idea of its work for the year ending March 31, 1911:—

Number of volumes at the beginning of the year (April 1, 1910)		18,032
Added by gift	23
Added by purchase	368
Missing volumes returned	47	438
		18,470
Missing and withdrawn		246
		<hr/>
Number of volumes in Library at present time		18,224
Number of volumes rebound during the year		433
Volumes worn out and replaced		33
Issued for home reading		15,553
Charged (April 1, 1911) as out		317
Number of volumes in the study		300

The magazines and the other periodicals received regularly include twenty-two dailies, fifty-one weeklies, four semi-monthlies, sixty-eight monthlies, and six quarterlies, making a total of one hundred and fifty-one.

MAGAZINES FOR HOME READING.

Six of the leading monthly magazines are duplicated for home circulation, bound in protecting covers as soon as received, and placed in the case on the counter of the Reception Room. The following figures show the circulation of each for the year:—

"Century," 224.	"Harper's," 275.
"Scribner's," 220.	"Outing," 147.
"Atlantic," 56.	"World's Work," 110.
Total, 1,032.

As with the statistics of books circulated for home reading, these figures do not tell the whole story: frequently two or three in the family of the borrower read the same book before it is returned to the library.

Statistics as to the use of books in the reading-room and in the reference collection cannot be given, considered one of the chief attractions of the Library, even in its early days when free access to books was not so popular with other library authorities as it is to-day, and thousands of young men who have been connected with the Union have expressed their appreciation.

The Library has steadily grown since the days when books were few and the selection restricted to the larger collection with books of a more general character and wide influence.

ROOMS.

Although an old story for our members, for those who read the report for the first time a brief description of our Union home may be of interest. The building is situated on Boylston Street, just east of Tremont Street, adjoining the Hotel Touraine, and over-

CENTRAL LOCATION. looking the Common. The location is central, within easy walking distance of both North and South Union Stations and near the Boylston Street entrances of the Tremont Street Subway and the Washington Street Tunnel, while nearly all the various lines of surface cars pass the door or near by on Tremont or Washington Streets.

Entrance to all departments is through the Reception

RECEPTION ROOM AND OFFICE. Room and Office, which contains the desks of the heads of the principal departments. Here business of the society is transacted, strangers and others desiring information are received, and such attentions are afforded as are in the power of the Union to furnish. Comfortable chairs, reading and writing tables, files of the leading dailies, telephone, facilities for checking bundles and garments, and similar conveniences are provided.

The building is open every day, including Sundays, from eight o'clock A.M. to ten o'clock P.M.

The attendance taken for one week in January, showing a daily average of 1,254, indicate the extent to which use is made of the rooms.

On the Boylston Street front, connecting with the Reception Room and Office, are the rooms for games, ROOMS FOR GAMES. affording facilities for chess, checkers, dominoes, bagatelle, and pool. From the rear of the Reception Room and Office, extending into the large L, is the Library and LIBRARY. Reading Room. Windows on three sides provide ample ventilation and an abundance of daylight, while a thoroughly modern system of electric lighting provides ample illumination for the evening hours. The Reading Room, one hundred and twelve feet long, with five thousand square feet of floor space, is equipped with writing as well as reading tables, and there are the usual racks and tables for the large number of newspapers, magazines and periodicals. The Study is supplied with books of reference.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE.

At the rear of the Reception Room and commanding a view of the entire floor, is the President's Office and Directors' Room.

The Gymnasium, on the ground floor, with light and air on every side, 136 feet in length, covers 6,200 superficial feet, exclusive of dressing rooms, or, in all, over 10,000 feet. It is the largest Gymnasium in the city. Dressing-rooms, general and private, with ample locker accommodations, connecting bath-rooms supplied with hot and cold water and complete modern equipments, are provided.

During the year the Physical Director's Office has been rearranged, giving more free floor space in the main Gymnasium, and, adjoining the office, a comfortable and attractive lounging room for members has been added.

Above the Reception Room and reached by a stairway from that room and also from the main entrance are the Parlor and connecting Committee and Class Rooms, as well as the Eaton Hall. This hall seats about one hundred, and, if desired, may be connected with The Union Hall.

The Parlor overlooks the Common. Its furnishings are simple in character, and, with the piano, paintings, photographs, and the "Waterston Collection" of some five hundred well-selected volumes give to the room the friendly atmosphere of the home.

The room is used especially for the smaller gatherings, for quiet social chats, and for the many impromptu and informal meetings, musicals, and the like which so often prove more enjoyable than the pre-arranged programmes.

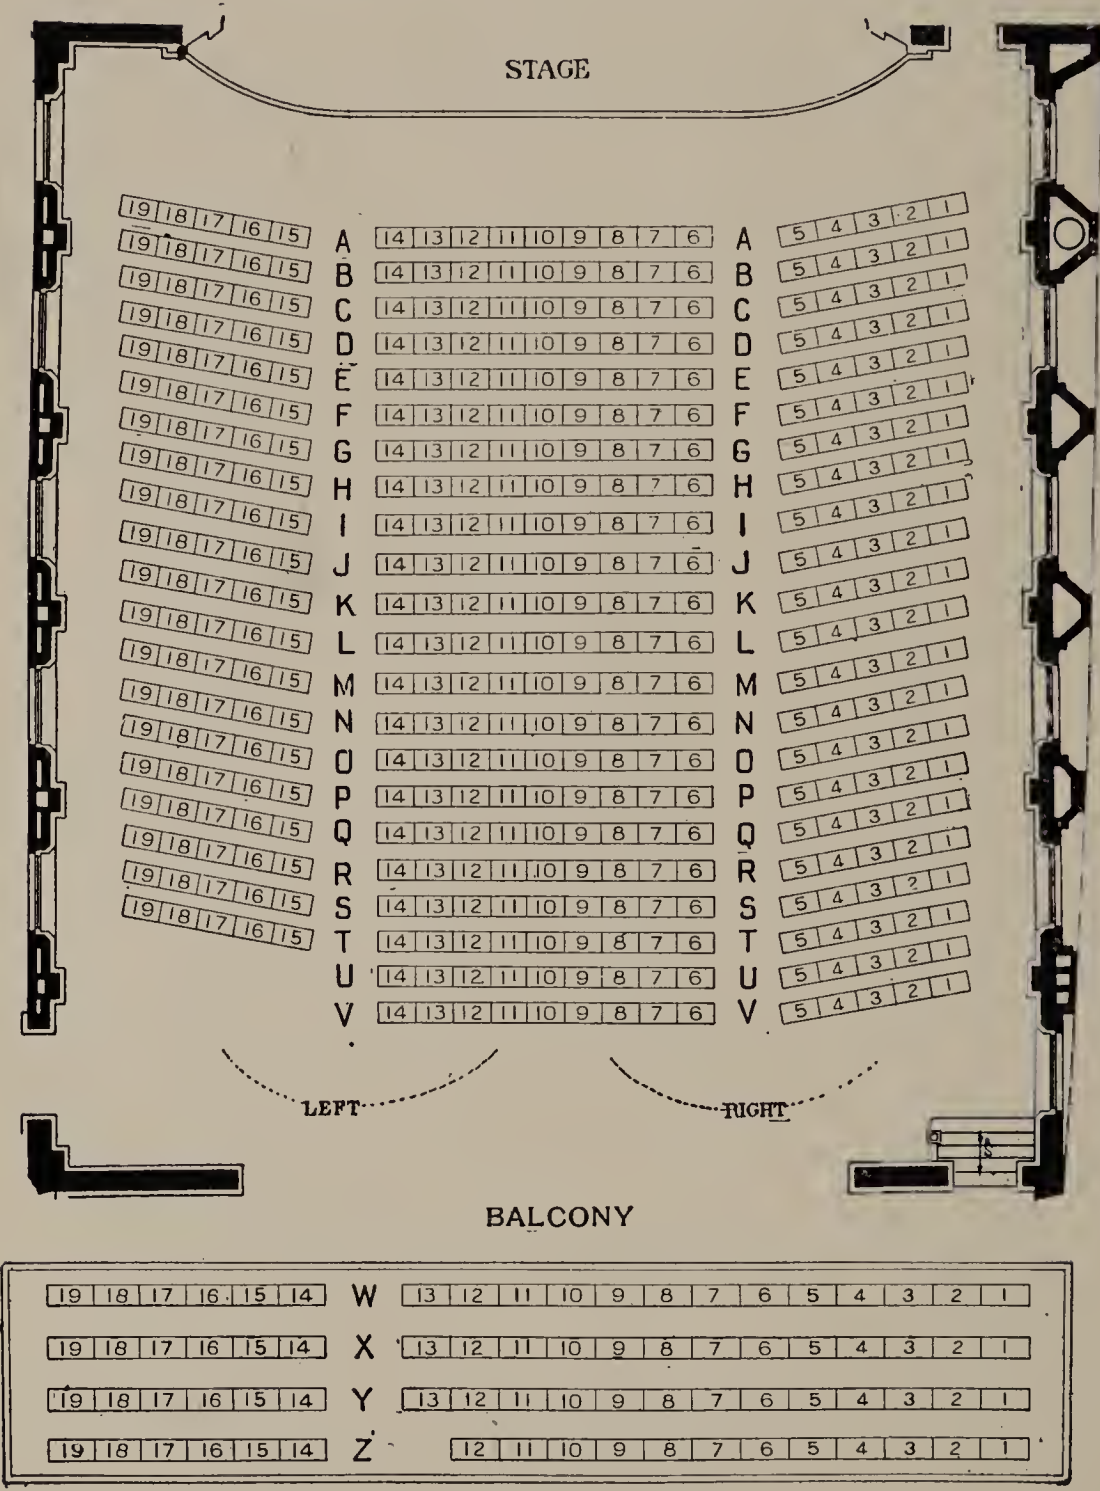

Over the Library, reached by the main stairway from Boylston Street, and also from the Reception Room through Eaton Hall, is The Union Hall seating, with the gallery, five hundred. The stage, thirty-six feet wide and thirty-nine feet deep, with a proscenium twenty-one feet, is the largest private stage in the city. It is provided with modern electric lighting equipment and appropriate scenery, suitably fireproofed. An asbestos fire curtain separates stage and auditorium in emergency. Connecting are large and convenient anterooms and dressing-rooms, with separate entrance from Boylston Square.

The Union Hall is admirably adapted for concerts, lectures, and dramatic performances, and is used for these and for the larger gatherings of the members. It is also let for similar purposes when not required by the Union.

Norcross Hall, in the rear of the building, with windows opening on Boylston Square, has a seating capacity of two hundred and seventy-five. The hall was named in memory of the late Hon. Otis Norcross, Trustee, and for years Treasurer of the Permanent Fund.

Committee, Class, and Assembly Rooms, as well as other smaller rooms, furnish accommodations for the varied branches of work undertaken.

During the summer the main entrance stairway, the Reception and Game Rooms, Norcross Hall, the Library and Gymnasium, were thoroughly renovated, and in large part repainted. No extraordinary repairs have been necessary, and no radical changes have been made in the use of the various rooms.

The large membership, the constantly changing requirements of the various branches of the work undertaken, together with the opportunity ever present for the undertaking of important new lines of work, leads the Committee to urge the early consideration of some radical reconstruction of the present building or the erection of a new one.

No changes have occurred during the year in the personnel of the administrative staff. Minor changes

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF. in the desk assistants and janitors have been made, otherwise the roll of employees has remained the same as for the past few years, and the Committee has pleasure in recording its appreciation of their continued faithful service.

MEMBERS.

To say, as we can truthfully say year after year, that the membership of the Union continues to show a steady and loyal support of the institution and a sincere appreciation of its advantages is to report a self-evident fact, but one which it is very pleasant to report. An encouraging sign of the support and interest is shown in the awakened desire of the members by the uniting of those of similar tastes in various directions, whether social, athletic, educational, or otherwise. We hope that this example will be followed by more members, and that on every day and evening the rooms of the Union will be filled with young men gathered together for mutual improvement and

AN

CONGENIAL
COMPANIONS. enjoyment,—young men to whom the Union means not solely a place to spend an idle hour, but a home filled with congenial companions, which to visit is a pleasure and to leave is a regret. This is, of course, what the Union does mean to a great many, but it ought to mean that to all of us. Help your Committee and the Union to attain this result.

During the last year, from April 1, 1910, to April 1, 1911:—

We have received 1,585 new members.

Of the former members 1,685 have continued their membership.

There was one new subscription member, and Seven renewed their subscriptions, three thereby becoming life members, making the number of our life members at the present time 2,018.

Our total membership on April 1, 1911, is 5,303.

Young men, without regard to their religious belief or association, are cordially invited to become members of the society, and to co-operate in the accomplishment of its purposes.

FEES. Annual Membership, One Dollar.

SOCIAL SERVICE.

The spirit of socialism is abroad in the world, and "all sorts and conditions of men" are being moved by it. The Christian Union flies no red flag, but is ambitious to keep in the front rank with all who are working for the good of Humanity.

Our Social Service operates in various directions, but much of its effort is employed in the support of three special enterprises, all conducted under the wise and efficient administration of the Secretary of this Department, Miss Elise S. Johnson.

Country Week comes first on our list, and its thirty-sixth year shows a continued appreciation of its value.

COUNTRY WEEK. The direct benefit experienced by the individual, the family, and the community through these country vacations is becoming more generally realized and more systematically promoted.

Here is a summary of last season's work:—

Number of adults given vacations	185

The usual special report of the Country Week may be had on application. It supplies many interesting details and statistics, and is attractively illustrated.

“Rides for Invalids” is another branch of our Social Service which has a long and honorable record. It RIDES FOR INVALIDS. continues to give relief to the suffering, encouragement to the depressed, and cheer to the weary. It is wide-spread in its ministrations and carries health-promoting pleasure to many invalids, to little children and work-worn mothers, to cripples and convalescents, and it has the counsel and encouragement of social service workers and authorities.

Here are the statistics for the past year, brief, but significant:—

Number of persons given carriage drives	910
Number of steamer tickets distributed	1,495
Number of electric car tickets distributed	16,310

The Christmas and New Year’s Festival has become an established event in the Union calendar, and during

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR’S FESTIVAL. the thirty-eight years of its continuance what a long procession of little ones has passed before its gift-laden trees. The Festival was celebrated this year, with much “pomp and circumstance,” on the Saturday afternoon of December 31. Six hundred and sixty-seven children were invited to attend the entertainment, and there were no empty seats. More than a hundred others shared in the gifts, so that the “Social Service” of Christmas was not confined by the walls of the Christian Union.

Promptly at two o'clock President Locke welcomed his little guests in a brief speech, and then the curtain rose on "Alice in Wonderland," a bright, dramatic rendering of scenes from the famous book, admirably presented (as a Christmas gift) by the Employees' Association of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union.

This was followed by some lusty singing by the children, led by Mr. James A. Beatley, Master in the English High School. Then came "Santa Claus," well-known in private life as Mr. George S. Baldwin, the Vice-President of the Union. His impersonation was certainly a histrionic success, and some of the children (happy in their ignorance) thought him "the real thing."

The cake and ice-cream came next, and were received with appreciative delight, after which, in due order, the children filed out to Norcross Hall, where kindly hands cloaked them, and where each received a generous bundle of substantial gifts to gladden their hearts at home.

Many good people co-operated in this pleasant work, and here are the names of some of those most immediately concerned.

“The Employment Bureau” is most distinctly a “Social Service” and is the medium of much direct and

It has been admirably conducted by Mr. Herbert C. Bronsdon, whose wide experience and good judgment give him an especial fitness for this work. No charge is made in this department to either employer or employee, and a live personal interest is shown in all applicants.

CHOICE OF VOCATION. The vocational problem is being made increasingly prominent of late, and has due consideration in this particular office, the following-named gentlemen having generously served as an Advisory Board:—

GEORGE HUTCHINSON.

CARL DREYFUS.

JEROME JONES.

CHARLES T. GALLAGHER.

The Committee has been gratified by the cordial letters which have been occasionally received from those who have profited through this service, showing a warm appreciation of these advantages.

This is a summary of the year's work:—

Applications for employment	1,177
Applications for employees	677
Sent to places	894
Places filled	350

While the Union avoids acting as a “charity” agent, it does meet this function in receiving clothing and distributing it to needy members, but this is carried on by Mr. Bronsdon in such a quiet and personal way that embarrassment to the giver and humiliation to the recipient are alike avoided.

BOARD AND LODGING LISTS. Our “Board and Lodging Lists” have had careful revision and are believed to be reliable. They are in charge of Mr. Dalton and are much consulted.

While in all its departments the Union must depend upon the public for sympathy and support, these are peculiarly needed in our Social Service work. We spend here a good deal of money, but we could spend more of it wisely. We are grateful for all the generous aid of the past, and we are confident of a like support in the future.

PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.

While character building, clean living, service to humanity are the foundation stones,—the basis of the whole work of the Union,—this Committee's endeavor is the pleasant one of more particularly emphasizing the spiritual and ethical and of inspiring the member to that more serious study and sympathetic service to his fellows, to country, and to God, without which one's life falls short of complete development.

CHARACTER BUILDING.

The importance of a connection with some church is urged upon members, and aid is given in obtaining seats in the particular churches which they desire to attend.

The principal effort of the Committee was expressed this year in a series of Sunday afternoon meetings or conferences for young men, beginning in December and extending through the season. Subjects of timely interest, selected with a view to their moral and ethical bearing on the young man's every-day life, were given consideration.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON CONFERENCES.

Prominent clergymen and laymen, chosen on account of their particular knowledge of or interest in the topic of the day, were invited to present the subject for consideration in a short address, after which opportunity was offered for questions and informal discussion, this after part often proving quite as interesting and instructive as the address itself. Special musical programmes were arranged for most of the meetings, and for the four conferences on Real Boston, in March, the public, both ladies and gentlemen, were invited.

The hearty thanks already personally expressed to the speakers of these several meetings should certainly be emphasized by this more public acknowledgment of our appreciation of their generous contribution of time and service. The following is a list of speakers and topics:—

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The Gymnasium has long been regarded as an invaluable adjunct of all institutions engaged in the uplifting and upbuilding of young men, and especially is this true at the present day when modern ideas and scientific methods prevail in all of the better gymnasiums.

The wide-spread interest in and enthusiasm for physical training and sports of all kinds is one of the most gratifying and encouraging signs of the times; and the Union Gymnasium, the largest and most completely equipped in Boston, is more than ever a centre of great athletic interest.

On April 1, 1911, the membership was 1,176, showing a good increase for the past year, and the regular attendance, mornings, afternoons, and evenings, has been steadily increasing. After the retirement, October 1, 1910, of our former Superintendent, Mr. Hoffman, who had served us faithfully for many years, it was the good fortune of the Physical Culture Committee to secure the services of Mr. Oliver L. Hebbert as Director and Mr. Ross E. Browning as Assistant, both of whom stand second to none in their special field. They have largely contributed to the effectiveness and popularity of the general gymnasium work, and particularly of the class work, and they have given personal care and instruction to such individual members as have sought their counsel.

MORNING CLASS.

The classes, always popular with our members of all ages, have taken on new life, and the floor space CLASSES. has often been taxed to its utmost capacity. Additional afternoon classes have proved a special attraction to business and professional men, and many have availed themselves of this opportunity to improve their physical condition and counteract the brain fag of sedentary occupation. The class work has included calisthenics, dumb bell, gymnastic dancing, Indian club, wand, high bars, parallel bars, horizontal bar, German horse, Swedish box, vaulting, tumbling, inclined and horizontal ladders, boxing and wrestling.

A novel and attractive feature is the gymnastic dancing, the most recent innovation in the Gymnasium,

GYMNASTIC and is included in all the classes. It DANCING. is designed as a pleasant and healthful deviation from routine work, and our members are finding it to be all that is claimed for it as a graceful and fascinating exercise.

The classes have been under the leadership of Mr. Hebbert and Mr. Browning, and, in the work on the special apparatus, they have had the assistance of a group of enthusiastic volunteer leaders.

Music for the class work has been in charge of Miss S. M. Gash, pianist, whose proficiency in the special requirements of this position has contributed in no small measure to the attractiveness of these drills.

BOYS. The Class for Boys on Saturday mornings has been well attended, this feature being in charge of Mr. Hebbert, and affording a safe form of recreation and exercise, which parents of growing boys much appreciate.

A special class for Civil Service candidates meets on Tuesday and Friday mornings for special instruction and training, to meet the requirements of the physical examinations and strength test of the Boston Police and Fire Departments.

The bath-rooms, both general and private, are thoroughly equipped with the latest appliances which dressing-rooms now contain a total of 1,308 lockers; and four private dressing-rooms, provided with extra large lockers, meet the special needs of our patrons.

The massage treatment remains in care of our expert masseur, Mr. Edwin F. Harding, whose services by special appointment are enjoyed by those who recognize the great benefit of this scientific treatment. An electric vibratory massage machine has been recently added to our equipment, and we hope that its peculiarly novel properties of invigoration will be of material benefit to those who use it. A special private room has been recently assigned to Mr. Harding, for the use of his patrons.

The marble Hand-ball Court has been in constant use the entire year, a new and improved system of lighting making the court more popular than ever. The exhilarating exercise which the game affords, together with the required skill and the friendly competition, have been of great physical and mental benefit to large numbers of men, both young and old.

The Wrestling Club has been very active. It has two instructors, Edgar O. Parker and Henry V. Rawlings, and its regular meeting nights are Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays. Some of its members have attended various athletic meets during the winter, winning several championships.

The Boxing has continued in charge of Mr. Everett F. Parks, and this form of exercise has enlisted many new members, who have shown great proficiency in the sport.

Attention is called to the physical examination to which all members of the Gymnasium are entitled, and which all are urged to take.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION. The measurements and tests are in accordance with the Civil Service Rules, and the examinations are under the supervision of the Medical Advisory Board composed of the following well-known physicians:—

HORACE D. ARNOLD, M.D.

EDWARD O. OTIS, M.D.

JOHN W. BARTOL, M.D.

RALPH C. LARRABEE, M.D.

E. H. NICHOLS, M.D.

The advice and direction of the Examining Physician, and of the Physical Director who has charge of the Physical measurements, are found of special value in correcting physical defects and in developing for special requirements. Re-examination from time to time is of value and interest in showing progress as the result of faithful exercise.

On Monday, September 26, a meeting of the gymnasium members was held in Norcross Hall, and a Sub-Committee of three was elected to represent the members and confer with the Physical Culture Committee. The gentlemen appointed were Messrs. Edward E. Clark, Charles A. Kingsley, and Joseph A. Smith. This idea was an excellent one, bringing about, as it did, a more intimate relation between the members and the Physical Culture Committee, and many new and practical suggestions conducive to the popularity of the gymnasium have been made and acted upon.

The special report of the Physical Director follows:—

REPORT OF PHYSICAL DIRECTOR.

The number of classes has been greatly increased this year, generally twenty, and often twenty-four, classes are held each week.

The classes in the morning have been very popular, the highest attendance being 45. This class meets on Tuesday and Friday at 10.30 A.M. The new afternoon class at 3.30 is well attended, the largest class numbering 37. The business men's class at 5.15 P.M. meets now on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday only, and has an average attendance of 31. A class at 6.30 P.M. on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday is popular with our members, and the largest attendance in the class has been 71. The evening class at 7.50 has been very large, the capacity of the Gymnasium being often taxed, and the interest in the work has been very marked. The class in Gymnastic Dancing on Tuesday and Friday mornings and Tuesday at 5 P.M. is increasing, and many of the older, as well as the younger, men appreciate this form of light and extremely pleasing form of exercise.

AFTERNOON CLASS.

A class for boys is held on Saturday mornings; but, owing to the lack of room suitable for boys, the class has been limited to twelve, who have attended regularly and enjoyed the work. When there is suitable accommodation, there will be one of the largest boys' classes in the country. A class for Employed Boys is in much demand, and would be of great value to all concerned.

TROPHY AND CLUB ROOM.

Several exhibitions have been given by some of the members of the evening class, those at East Milton and Norwood Civic Association creating much interest in each place.

I wish to express my deep appreciation and heartiest thanks to the members of the Union for the cordial welcome and ready assistance they have given both to my assistants and to myself. It has been of the greatest help and encouragement, and we are sincerely grateful.

OLIVER L. HEBBERT,
Physical Director.

A Baseball Club was formed during the past season under the direction of Mr. Frederick L. Goulston, and gave a good account of itself, winning eleven out of seventeen games.

The games, without exception, were played with strong semi-professional and fast amateur teams.

BASE- The season closed on Labor Day, when the BALL. Union team played the fast Hawthorne team of Dorchester, a thirteen inning game, which we lost by a five to four score.

Most of the games were played on Franklin Field, Dorchester, which we considered our home grounds, although we played away from home with teams in Milton, East Boston, Chelsea, Brookline, and Auburndale.

We hope to have double the number of Union members go out for the game next season, and there is no reason why the Boston Young Men's Christian Union should not be represented by one of the fastest amateur teams in the State.

During the past summer, through the courtesy of Mr. Charles W. Hubbard, a Summer Camp was provided for our members at Pine Grove Station on the banks of the Charles River above Riverside, in a most attractive location. A Camping Club was formed, consisting of Messrs. John N. Brooks, president; Arthur F. Hopkins, secretary; Alexander B. Lothrop, treasurer; Fred B. Chase, James J. Hurley, George B. Allen, Phillip Wagshal, Edward W. Heldt, and others, and many pleasant and health-giving days were enjoyed in the open. Comfortable sleeping quarters were provided, as well as ample facilities for the preparation of meals, and opportunities were afforded for bathing, boating, and canoeing.

TERMS. Members of the Union by the payment of seven dollars per year are entitled to the use of the Gymnasium at all times when open. Four dollars per year entitle them to its use after six o'clock P.M.

EARLY HISTORY.

The Boston Young Men's Christian Union was instituted in 1851, and incorporated under its present name in 1852.

Its work was temporarily interrupted by the Civil War, but in April, 1868, a complete reorganization was effected. Rooms were secured at 12 West Street, and 1868. active work resumed. The rooms soon proved too small for the purposes of the society, and larger ones were taken in the fall at what was then 300 Washington Street, corner of Suffolk Place, where the whole building above the first floor was eventually occupied. These premises also proving inadequate, it became necessary to move again. In the spring of 1874, a suitable lot of land having been found, a public appeal was made for funds with which to purchase the land and erect a new building. By the generosity of friends the necessary amount with which to begin the work was speedily secured.

The present building was completed and dedicated March 15, 1876. By the munificent legacy of eighty 1876. thousand dollars from the late Joseph B. Eaton, a Life Member, supplemented by other generous gifts, the society was enabled in 1879 (December 10) to hold its building free from all indebtedness. In 1882, on account of constantly growing needs, enlargement of the building was deemed necessary.

1883. Numerous friends promptly responded to an appeal; and an addition to the building was completed, and dedicated May 28, 1883.
